

How did you first encounter Tinariwen's music? Do you remember your initial reaction?

On a scale of 1-5 (1 being you've heard and liked their music, and 5 being a super-fan), where would you place yourself?

What about Tinariwen and/or their music do you find most compelling?

Are/were you interested in learning about Tinariwen, their story, or their culture?

Have you done any of the following?

- Followed them on social media. If so, which platform(s)?
- Subscribed to their emails.
- Visited their website.
- Bought a physical CD or LP. How many?
- Downloaded their album(s). How many?
- Read the lyrics to their songs.
- Seen a live performance. Do you remember when/where?
Was it part of a festival with other performers?
- Watched any interviews or videos online.
- Researched their culture, language, or history. If yes, please elaborate.